YOUNG ELECTED

CITY INSPECTOR

Council at Special Meeting Act on Resignation of W. S. Lord --- Work Done in Record Time.

The City Council created a new record for doing business, on Thursday evening, when they met for a special meeting, transacted their business and adjourned in less than four minutes.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor Adams with only the ward four members present.

Mayor Adams read the call for special meeting, which was to receive the resignation of City Inspector Winfred S. Lord. The call was signed by Councilmen Stoddard, White, Littlefield, Leary and Brewster, and at the conclusion of the reading he said:

"Gentlemen, this is as far as I can go as I have not received the resignation."

Councilman Stoddard interrupted to state that he had the resignation of Mr. W. S. Lord as city inspector, and moved that it be accepted.

The resignation addressed to the mayor and council was read and accepted.

Councilman Stoddard then moved that the council proceed to the election of a city inspector, and Councilman Trafton placed in nomination the name of William P. Young, and on roll-call he received the unanimous vote and was declared elected, and on motion of Councilman Stoddard the council adjourned.

William P. Young has held the office since it was created, and was turned down at the meeting last Thursday night, although he was the caucus choice. He has made an efficient officer and knows thoroughly the work of the office.

Local railroad station employees are pleased at the new agreement with the Boston and Maine railroad.

STEADY WORK AT NAVY YARDS

Government Employees League President Makes Some Suggestions

A Question is Raised as to the Legality of the Yearly Fifteen Days' Leave

The Navy League which have been in session at Washington for several days, have brought up some important matters in the navy department, which do not look promising in every respect.

George L. Cain of Lynn, president of the league of government employees, is meeting with many obstacles in his efforts to improve the status of employees of the navy yards at Boston and elsewhere. He learned that eighty machinists at the Boston yard will be furloughed for ten days, at the end of which period they will be discharged. This makes a total of 800 men laid off at the Boston yard within the last year.

Mr. Cain says there is no relief in sight, as Admiral Cone, chief of the bureau of steam engineering, says there is no money to pay a large force of men at Boston.

In order to prevent wholesale discharges in the future, Mr. Cain has suggested to Secretary Meyer that the division of the fleet be arranged on a different basis. At present 18 ships constitute a division. Mr. Cain thinks that 20 ships should be included in a division, 16 of which should be in active service and four undergoing repairs constantly. This would afford work for a large force of men the year round. No action has been taken on this proposition.

Mr. Cain says the navy yard men are dissatisfied with the present system in regard to repairing vessels. In pursuance of the administration's policy of economy, according to Mr. Cain, repairs are to be made by the sailors aboard ship instead of having all the work done at the navy yards.

The fifteen days annual leave of absence heretofore enjoyed by navy yard employees seems about to be taken from them under a department decision. Under this decision, it was held that an act passed in 1901 giving fifteen days leave applied only to that one year, and that the annual leave which the men have been enjoying since 1901 was given without authority in law.

Mr. Cain has taken the matter up with the attorney general, contending that the law of 1901 remains in force until it is repealed.

LOBSTERMAN STRUCK IN FOG

The Boston Schooner Little Elsie Was Stranded on Long Point This Morning

The Boston two-masted lobster crew and he stayed on board. The schooner Little Elsie went ashore at Long Point, Rye, in the heavy fog at eight o'clock this morning.

As the fog lifted, she was seen a little later from the Wallis Sands and Wood Island life saving stations and both crews went to the rescue, besides which the tug M. Mitchell Davis was in immediate danger of her breaking up.

Captain F. A. Partridge accompanied the Wallis Sands lifesavers ashore and telephoned the owners at Boston. There was only one other man in the

B. & M. DOUBLE TRACK

Lucius Tuttle Gives an Interview

President Lucius Tuttle of the Boston and Maine railroad on Thursday night at Boston gave out an interview the gist of which is given below.

"Railroad companies, when properly managed, like other business concerns, spend money for improvements only where such expenditures are arranged by conditions and where they would be advisable and proper. To double track the Concord division or any other on which the traffic is not great enough to warrant such a change would, aside from the millions of dollars it would cost for construction alone, indicate very poor business judgment. The charge of maintenance, including both upkeep and operation, would be doubled, or at least increased by fifty per cent., while there would be received from traffic on the road no more money with which to pay those costs."

"The greater portion of the company's lines east of Boston as far as Portland are at present double-tracked because the business over those lines has warranted such an arrangement. One or two small gaps in this double-tracking will be closed up before long.

The schooner was bound east for a cargo of lobsters.

The tug M. Mitchell Davis is standing by and it is hoped that she can pull the schooner off on this afternoon's rising tide.

The revenue cutter service has been notified in the home that one of the cutters will be able to come to the assistance of the schooner.

At one o'clock this afternoon the Northeast storm signals were set and the sea was getting rough which will make the work of rescue difficult or impossible.

At present there is nothing to warrant double-tracking to the north of Concord in New Hampshire. Indeed, with the installation of the automatic electric block signals, those portions of our system will be as well equipped for caring for all their business as they would be with double tracks."

"The road, like any other great industry, endeavors to provide facilities ample for the transaction of the public transportation committed to its care. Where the traffic is dense and extensive its transportation lines are kept in the best possible condition and proportionate to the needs, of that business. Under such conditions, double tracks and even four tracks are necessary, but in more sparsely settled sections, where the train service is limited and not exceeding say two trains per hour, no wisely managed road thinks it necessary to make expenditures for additional tracks or for other facilities greatly in excess of the transportation needs of its customers in such sections."

"The company contemplates extended improvements but no lavish expenditure or improvements beyond reason. Important changes other than those already announced are contemplated, but in all instances they will be dictated by the need for them, the traffic conditions and the profitability of their establishment."

year except the rebuilding of Sturgeon Creek bridge.

Sickness is increasing in town, but Eliot is still free from the dreaded pneumonia.

AS CANNON'S SUCCESSOR

Latest Rumor Makes Roosevelt the Next Speaker

COCKS WOULD STEP OUT

Oyster Bay District Representative in Congress Says He Will Be Glad to Resume Farming, If Ex-President Will Run For Congress—No House Rules Would Be Necessary With Teddy in the Chair

Washington, Jan. 21.—Roosevelt for speaker, to succeed Cannon, is the latest imaginative disposition of the ex-president. The story has circulated through the Capitol, and represents Roosevelt as agreeing to a plan to run for congress from the First New York district and to accept the speakership as the only public office, aside from the presidency, that appears to his aggressive qualities.

The White House is conveniently dragged into the plot, with the suggestion that this alleged ambition of Roosevelt is known to President Taft, who is said to have promised to attend the big reception to the ex-president which will be accorded him when he arrives in New York about June 1.

The First, or Oyster Bay district, of New York is represented by William W. Cocks, who is described as more than willing to step aside to let Roosevelt in. Cocks was one of the callers at the White House yesterday, and was in the merriest kind of mood over the report.

"It suits me first rate," said Cocks. "You know Roosevelt has been mentioned for every office in the country ever since he left Washington. This last one strikes me as being pretty good dope. Get out of the way? Of course I would. I would be mighty glad to go back to farming if Roosevelt wants to come to congress."

"What effect would Roosevelt as speaker have on the rules?" Cocks was asked.

"Rules," echoed Cocks, "there wouldn't be any rules if Roosevelt was speaker. What would they want with rules? Talk about Cannon; why, if Roosevelt was in the chair you would never think Cannon had been there."

An Cocks was the innocent cause of the suggestion, made some months ago, that Roosevelt could be nominated for governor of New York, of course he is equally good authority on the speakership. As a matter of fact the ex-president is being very seriously considered for the governorship, on the theory that he is the only man who could pull the Republican party through the Empire State. His intimate friends, however, do not believe that any consideration would tempt him to touch New York politics again, except as a sort of physical director.

Now that the suggestion is made that he succeed Cannon, it has been received with a spontaneity and enthusiasm which are exceedingly interesting. That is all that can be said of the story at present.

HEADING OFF EPIDEMIC

Vaccination of Five Hundred Employees in Lynn Shoe Factory

Lynn, Mass., Jan. 21.—The 500 men and women employed in the Mrs. A. F. King shoe factory were all obliged to submit to vaccination yesterday afternoon. One of the smallpox victims, it developed, had visited the factory and the board of health decided to take no chances, fearing an epidemic. The vaccination was done by City Physician Stone and a corps of assisting physicians.

In announcements published in all the newspapers the board of health ordered all residents of Lynn who are not vaccinated or who have not been vaccinated recently to go to the city hall. The work of vaccinating begun today and will continue until Monday. The work will be done without charge.

The four smallpox patients have been taken to the contagious hospital.

BOY BURGLAR CAUGHT

Found Policemen Awaiting Him When He Entered a House

Newton, Mass., Jan. 21.—James H. Greagan, 12 years old, was arrested last night in the residence of Mrs. David Farquhar after he had effected an entrance while Policeman Goode lay concealed within.

Greagan is already held under bonds for a further hearing on a warrant charging the forging and uttering of two worthless checks.

For several nights past Mrs. Farquhar has been missing small articles from her residence. She complained to the police and Goode was assigned to the case.

Three nights in succession he waited for another visit of the burglar. Last night he heard a noise at the door and heard a sound like that of a key turning the lock.

A moment later young Greagan stood in the hallway and Goode seized his prisoner, who made no resistance. The youngster will be arraigned on the charge of breaking and entering.

HAS HOOKWORM DISEASE

Hospital Doctors Discover Nature of Woman's Protracted Ailment

Springfield, Mass., Jan. 21.—Until yesterday Miss Louisa Johnson of this city did not know the nature of the ailment which has kept her in poor health for over a year. Members of the medical staff of the Mercy hospital have determined that she is suffering from the hookworm disease.

Immediate relief was noted when the proper treatment was administered. Specimens have been sent to the Harvard medical school for examination, but the local physicians assert that there is not the slightest doubt as to the nature of her malady.

Miss Johnson is a Swedish woman about 40 years old. She has never lived in the south, and her case is the first to be reported in this section.

Reputable physicians here believe sporadic cases may exist in New England, which have been generally termed anemia, or intestinal trouble, both of which are symptoms of the hookworm.

Several times reported dead, Jones appeared here a few days ago, and went to the house of a friend, whom he told he was tired of being chased around the world. He declared that he had returned for the purpose of making a clean breast of it and settling the whole affair.

The testimony of Jones at the trial went a long way toward securing Patrick's conviction.

SIX COUNTS OF MURDER
Court Decides Mrs. Kelleher Must Be Tried on All at Same Time

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 21.—Mrs. Mary Kelleher of Somerville, who is under indictment for the murder of six of her relatives by poisoning, will be placed on trial Feb. 7 on the six counts of murder, according to the ruling of Chief Justice Alken of the superior criminal court, who overruled the motion of the woman's attorneys that she be tried on one count at a time.

In their motion the attorneys stated that Mrs. Kelleher was accused of several separate and distinct acts and that for her to be tried on the six counts at one time, would unduly prejudice her right to a fair trial.

FEDERAL INSURANCE LAW

President Taft Sees No Chance of One Ever Being Passed

Washington, Jan. 21.—President Taft, in addressing the annual meeting of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents, held out no hope for the enactment of a federal law to govern the companies, and advised the executive officers to bend their efforts toward uniform legislation to the states.

"The only function that the United States can perform," said the president, "is to pass a model law in the District of Columbia and there show to the world what congress, aided possibly by a scientific commission, shall believe to be the best kind of an insurance law. I shall be very glad, in so far as any power lies in me, to encourage such action."

"I have been on the bench and at the bar and I have ruled that men must read their policies to know what they contain in order to have an understanding of what the contract is, and I am conscious of never having read any of the policies which I have taken out, because I trusted the man who explained it to me."

Two Women and a Man Found Murdered in a New York Flat

New York, Jan. 21.—Triple murder was revealed in an obscure flat in the heart of New York's East Side. Two women and a man were the victims.

Gagged with silk handkerchiefs and with their heads crushed with a hammer or an axe, they were left bleeding on the floor, with a whimpering bull terrier as companion for the dead. Robbery was the motive, or else, the police say, it is another case of the Black Hand.

The police are convinced that more than one person took part in the murder, but there is no direct clue to the murderers.

LORENZ HELD WITHOUT BAIL

Murder of Gilbert Mann Is

Charged Against Him

IDENTIFIED AS FOOTPAD

Several Charges Will Not Be Pressed, as Police Claim That They Have Enough Evidence to Send Him to Prison For Life—Refuses to Plead, So Court Enters Plea of Not Guilty Against the Accused Man

Providence, Jan. 21.—Ernest W. Lorenz was held without bail, in the Knightsville court, on a charge of the murder of Gilbert Mann.

Four other warrants charging assault and larceny were also read to the prisoner, and he refused to plead to each.

The police, after a strenuous effort to connect Lorenz with the murder of Laura Regester, have determined to devote their energies to convicting him of crimes with which he is intimately connected by confession and evidence.

Last night several persons who have been held up within the past year called upon the police and identified Lorenz as the perpetrator. These charges will not be pressed, however, as enough have already been brought to secure, the police state, sentence for life in prison. There is no capital punishment in Rhode Island.

All the warrants are against Ernest W. Lorenz, alias William Lader. The first warrant charged him with the murder of Gilbert Mann in Johnston on Jan. 8.

In reply to Judge Knowles' query, "Guilty or not guilty?" the prisoner, in a dazed manner, said: "No, sir; I can't remember."

Upon his refusal to plead, the court entered a plea of not guilty and held him without bail for a hearing on Jan. 28.

He was next arraigned on a warrant charging that on Dec. 24, in the town of Johnston, he robbed Alice W. Bartlett of a diamond ring, valued at $165. Lorenz said:

"I don't know what you mean. I had a ring and I saw a lady down street. Is she here? If it's the one I saw down street, I held her up, but there were so many of them I don't know which is which if I do not see them."

TO WED "YAMA YAMA GIRL"

New York Gossips Pick Next Bride of Richard Harding Davis

New York, Jan. 21.—It is common report on Broadway in theatrical and literary circles that when Mrs. Richard Harding Davis secures her divorce from her husband he will marry Miss Dessie McCoy, the "Yama Yama Girl."

The writer and the dancer have been friends for more than a year, and many of their friends have thought that the friendship had deepened to a warmer feeling.

The trouble of Davis and his wife appears to be, according to their friends, that they were never really deeply in love with each other, having been acquainted since childhood and being really nothing more than "chums" at the time of their picturesque marriage in 1899.

Delay of Two Supreme Justices Breaks Court Rule of Years

Washington, Jan. 21.—What had been supposed to be an absolutely unbreakable rule was violated Thursday when noon arrived and passed without the supreme court of the United States being called to order. Six members constitute a quorum, but only five were present.

After a wait of eighteen minutes Justices White and McKenna entered the court hurriedly, fastening their robes about them as they took their places on the bench. They had been in attendance at the funeral services of the late Ambassador Nabuco of Brazil.

Japan Stands With Russia Against Manchurian Railway Scheme

Peking, Jan. 21.—Japan has notified China informally through the Japanese legation here that Japan and Russia, with concerted action, will decline the proposal of the United States for the neutralization of the Manchurian railways.

DEATH OF ARTHUR SHIBLEY

Doctors Say That Vitality Displayed by Little Boy Was Wonderful

New York, Jan. 21.—Seized with a sudden convulsion that made him gasp for breath and extending his arms toward his mother as though he wished her to embrace him, Arthur Shibley, the 6-year-old boy who was shot by a murk in Highbridge park at the same time that Robert Lomas was killed, died at a time when he seemed to be on the road to recovery.

When Mrs. Shibley, his mother, saw the three physicians who were nearby look gravely at the child and then apply the stethoscope to his heart, she screamed, instinctively knowing that he was dead, and fell insensible over his body.

Nurses carried the mother to an adjoining room, where she was revived. In heart breaking tones she called for her boy and could not persuade herself that he was dead. She was weak from the operation for the transfusion of blood from her veins to those of her son and also from her long vigil at his bedside. She was led away to her home by her husband.

The remarkable fight that the child made for his life and the wonderful courage that he displayed in his sufferings had endeared him to the doctors to such an extent that they were almost constantly at his side. The vitality that the boy displayed was said at the hospital to have been wonderful. An ordinary child would not have survived the wound more than a day, while he lived a week.

LIBERALS DISAPPOINTED

Indications That the Irish May Be in a Position to Dictate

London, Jan. 21.—Results of the latest polling have been a source of keen disappointment to the Liberal party. Their leaders reckoned on losing eight seats, whereas they lost nearly double that number.

The struggle now turns on the point whether the Liberals will be able to obtain a majority clear of the Irish. It is candidly admitted among themselves that unless they do much better today there is little prospect of this indispensable condition of their permanent retention of office being realized.

of Cleveland People

Boston, Jan. 21.—"No meat" clubs, similar to those of Cleveland, are soon to be organized in this city in an attempt to force the price of meat down, it is reported.

Plans to use Faneuil Hall are forming for a great mass meeting of the citizens of Boston interested in a movement to try the experiment that has made Cleveland and her "no meat clubs" famous.

Prominent business men of this city who are large buyers of meats, but who do not care to have their names quoted for various reasons, declare that they heartily favor the plan adopted in Cleveland and declare that action will soon be taken in this city to form similar clubs.

WRONG HOUSE TORN DOWN

Woman Goes Shopping and Returns to Find Home Disappearing

Hartford, Jan. 21.—The Hartford Saengerbund, a local German singing society, voted to have their old club house torn down. Yesterday forenoon Miss Agnes Campton, who lives in and owns the building next to the club house, went shopping, and when she returned in the afternoon she found workmen tearing down her house.

Telephone conversations revealed the error of the foreman, who supposed that the old Campton house, and not the club house, was to be done away with. Miss Campton says she will institute heavy damage suits against everybody concerned.

New York, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, until recently leader of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, has issued a statement denying the report that she was to start another church.

"I have no such intention," said Mrs. Stetson, "nor has such a step ever occurred to me. It is only when my loyalty to my beloved and revered leader, Mary Baker Eddy, the mother church, and to the cause of Christian Science is questioned, that I protest and ask to be heard."

RAILROADS TURN DOWN REQUEST FOR RAISE

No Strike Yet in Sight, But Another Conference Asked—B. & M. Makes An Agreement With Station Em- ployees.

First reports Thursday, from a general conference between officials of eastern railroad systems and committees of the conductors and trainmen show that the New York Central railroad and the Boston and Albany, controlled by the central, have turned down the request of the men for better working conditions and an increase of wages.

The conference for the Boston and Albany took place in the South Terminal Station. The Boston and Maine conference was at the North Station. The New York, New Haven and Hartford officials met the committee of its employees at the general office of that system in New Haven.

The conference between the officials of the Boston and Albany division and the committee of employees was ended shortly after noon.

Demands are Refused.

W. J. Frapp, general superintendent, and H. J. Hustie, general assistant, manager of the Boston and Albany, received the committee at the company's offices and granted them a hearing, though they declared that at the present it would be impossible to grant the requests of the committee.

C. A. Merrill of South Framingham, chairman of the men's committee, said later:

"The company has refused our requests as a whole, but as our relationship with the company has always been amicable, and we have every hope of the matter being adjusted satisfactorily by further conference.

He also stated that this refusal of the railroad management does not mean a strike, and that the committee had not taken a vote of "yes" or "no" on the strike question.

About the same time dispatches from New York shows that the officials of the New York Central had rejected the request made by the committee representing the conductors and trainmen of the main system. The New York Central suggested that the men name a committee to meet with a similar body of officials to try to adjust the differences.

New York Central Statement.

The following statement was given out by the company:

On January 3 a committee representing the conductors and trainmen presented a request for an increase in wages that has been carefully gone over. It was found to be in an excessive amount that we could not consistently accept and therefore it was declined with the suggestion to the men that the company's officers will meet with a committee representing the New York Central men to discuss and negotiate the question, as has been customary for a great many years.

This is practically the same reply which has been made by all the other roads to the demand for increased pay. A committee of five officials will confer with the representatives of that road in regard to their demands this afternoon.

B. & M. Grant Request.

Boston and Maine railroad officials issued a new general order and schedule Thursday for baggage men, station men and crossing men at all stations, and delivery and receiving clerks, checkers and freight handlers outside of Boston.

It makes public the fact that recently the officials of the road entered into an agreement covering such employees with the brotherhood of railroad station employees, of which P. J. Coyle of Somerville is the general president.

It is the first agreement covering the station service and employees which the road has made with an organization since 1905.

Under the terms there is no general wage increase, but the men make a great gain as regards overtime pay, promotions, rules for reinstatement after lay-offs and general betterments. Men assigned temporarily to work other than their own will receive the compensation of the position if its wage rate is higher than that of their regular job.

The regulations prescribe that promotions in the freight service shall be from trackmen to receiving or delivery clerk and from those rates to that of checker. Sunday and holiday work will be dispensed with as far as practicable. When required, station men will receive a half day's pay for four hours work and a day's pay for more than that while the freight men will be given a half day's pay for three hours and a whole day for more than three hours.

JOHN W. BOURLET

The Death of a Prominent Man at Concord

Concord, Jan. 21.—John W. Bourlet, of the Rumford Press, died, at his Centre street home on Thursday after an illness of some duration.

He was born in New York city, March 7, 1850, the eldest son of John W. and Dorothy True (Batchelder) Bourlet. When he was 9 years old, with his family he came to Concord and took up his residence in East Concord, where the next seven years of his life were passed, and where he attended the public schools, during such part of the time as he was able.

He was apprenticed to the printing trade and became foreman of the Monitor Job plant which he left in 1893 to become the first state labor commissioner, which position he held three years.

When the Rumford Printing company was organized he became superintendent and held the position until failing health compelled him to retire.

He was grand master of the New Hampshire Odd Fellows in 1891 and 1892.

He is survived by his wife; one son, John W. Bourlet, Jr.; two grandchildren, Dorothy and John W. Bourlet, 3d; two brothers, James W., and Gilbert A.; and by three sisters, Mrs. Fred E. Cloughman of Beachmont, Mrs. Eugene Hinds of Concord.

ERIE RAILROAD TERMINAL FIRE

New York, Jan. 21.—Fire that originated in an explosion in the gas generating plants swept through the freight terminals of the Erie Railroad at Jersey City early today, causing a loss of $250,000 within a short time and threatening two freight piers as well as much rolling stock.

A brisk wind, while fanning the fire, drove it away from the Wells Fargo express wharf and the passenger depot and wharf station 300 feet south of the piers.

Fire tugs of the New York Central and Lackawanna roads, as well as the Erie, aided by several other tugs, fought the fire from the river, while the land fire fighters were handicapped by lack of hydrants.

A great battle was made to keep the flames from the Reading warehouse and office building near the head of Pier No. 6. A force of clerks carried valuable records from the structure.

Efforts to transfer many cars to lighters failed. Every available locomotive was set to drawing cars beyond the danger zone.

THE MAYOR SPOKE

He Addressed the High School Scholars on Thursday Afternoon

Mayor E. H. Adams visited the high school on Thursday afternoon and made a short speech felicitating the young people upon their educational opportunities which only a few years ago were not ever dreamed of.

While at the building he visited the manual training department and was greatly delighted at the extent and quality of the work that he found done there.

Mayor Adams later spoke of the pride which he felt in noticing the fine behavior and the intelligence shown by the citizens of a few years hence.

Local Street Railway Man Has Dr. Cook as a Passenger

A prominent conductor of the local street railway always has a little on the rest of his rest of his brass buttoned comrades and when they can hand him any surprises they will have to go without sleep to do it. His very latest is the story that Dr. Cook was a passenger one day on his car recently and that he made a strong acquaintance with the noted explorer. He states that the friendly feeling between himself and the Doctor has caused the green eyed monster to appear now and then among his co-workers. The Doctor has since they parted sent him no wireless communications, neither did they discuss the matter of McKinley while the two distinguished gentlemen enjoyed this meeting in Portsmouth. If the Doctor ever starts again for the frigid region there will be one vacancy on the Portsmouth Electric railway as sure as little apples are a part of the New England fruit production.

Is not so much to sell a Suit or Overcoat as it is to get a customer. There is a big difference between selling a man a suit and getting him for a regular customer.

NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY For All Skin Troubles

A chemist who was convinced that the old method of taking internal remedies to cure skin diseases was erroneous, has discovered that an extract from a particular part of a well-known tree possessed antiseptic and curative properties on the skin diseases. It was, however, found that this valuable vegetable extract was difficult to compound with other ingredients necessary to present it in a form convenient to use. After further investigations and experiments a method of special treatment was devised, resulting in a combination of ingredients possessing, to a marked degree, valuable therapeutic properties, the use of which has never before been produced. This important product is known as Cadum.

Since its introduction Cadum has cured many cases of chronic eczema and other unsightly, irritating, and distressing skin diseases, and this after other treatments have failed.
Cadum stops the terrible itching of eczema at once, and begins the healing process with the first application.
Its action is still more remarkable in less serious skin troubles, such as hives, pimples, blotches, tetter, itching, herpes, scaly skin, psoriasis, ringworm, rash, chafings, eruptions, sores, itching piles, scurvy, blackheads, seabs, etc. Many of the results effected by Cadum may be truly called remarkable. It destroys disease producing germs, allays inflammation, and is soothing and healing to the skin. Trial box 10c; large box 25c.

BOWLING

Royal Arcanum Get High
Total and Win From Maplewood.

The Royal Arcanum bowling team rolled the highest string total of the league schedule, on Thursday evening when they took three of the four points from the Maplewoods. It was a hot contest and there was interest enough to draw a good number of spectators. The Arcanum kept up their winning streak, although they had a bad first string, when Renner, their star man, only got 75, but he made up on the next two strings, and ended with the high single and three string total of the game.

The Maplewoods continued to have hard breaks. This team has a good bunch of bowlers, but so far they have failed to get going, and while Ham did a little better last evening
he is still considerably below his usual average. Whitehouse was high man for the Maplewoods:

Japan Declines Office of U. S.

Pekin, Jan. 21.—Japan has notified
China informally, through the Japanese legation here, that Japan and Russia, with connected nations, will decline the proposal of the United States for the neutralization of the Manchurian railways.

Japan charges China with having been responsible for the proposal, and thus of having committed an act unfriendly to the former.

THE PASSION PLAY AT MUSIC HALL

Interesting Lecture and Pictures under Auspices of Eagles.

Under the auspices of Mercedes Acie of Engles at Music Hall last evening was one of the best views of the famous Oberammergau Passion Play. They were made by the lecturer
Mr. Ellsworth during the play in 1900 and 1902 and were artistic and true to life. About all of the views were handsomely colored and with the interesting lecture given made an evening's entertainment that pleased a large audience.

An orchestra which rendered the special music of the play added materially to the evening's programme.

SURELY SETTLES UPSET STOMACHS

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Vanish in Five Minutes

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapiesin and realize not only immediate but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will almost anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't sit comfortably or what you eat lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour plings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no spur food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drugstore.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

LITERARY NOTES

The February Strand

The February Strand Magazine
contains an excellent amount of interesting material, the fiction being particularly strong. Mason's detective story, "The Murder at the Villa Rose" is continued and H. G. Wells contributes a characteristic story entitled
"My First Aeroplane." There are a number of other capital stories. The articles deal with subjects of that out-of-the-way character for which the Strand is famous.

The Farmer's Winter Evenings

The farmer has time these long evenings and bad days to work his brain and batten his vision by reading, planning and studying. He has time to weigh problems and to write letters that should have been written long ago. I know some farmers living handy to the village store who spend every evening and bad day loafing.
This is too much of a good thing. I believe in dividing the time up a little better. The fellow who has no desire to improve his mental qualities, or to figure out why he has not made much money in the past year, might at least spend a little time in doing things for the comfort and pleasure of those he loves.—From February Farm Journal.

The February Everybody's

Everybody's for February, through the agency of Richard Washburn Child, attempts an analysis of Schedule "K." This is the tariff schedule that deals with wool. The conclusions are that this schedule is cleverly drawn to fool the sheep-raiser, discussion of the "Servant Problem" in East Africa every item is of interest and value.

JACK JOHNSON ARRESTED

Regrets He Did Not Hit Former Friend Harder

New York, Jan. 21.—"Jack" Johnson, the champion heavyweight pugilist, was arrested in New York Thursday night, charged with felonious assault. The negro's fastidious taste in the matter of drinks was indirectly responsible for his arrest. Nathan Pinder, a black friend of the fighter, is the only accuser. He was sitting in a cafe early yesterday, he says, when Johnson came in. Two women companions urged him to buy Johnson a drink, but Pinder, with the remark that "he won't drink anything but wine," declined to undergo such heavy expense. This enraged Johnson, he says who called him "cheap" and the fight followed. One blow from Johnson's right sent Pinder sprawling under the table, where Johnson completed his attack by stepping on Pinder's face.

At headquarters the fighter admitted that he had struck his old friend, and said that his only regret was that he hadn't hit him harder. Pinder was swathed in bandages.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Boston Jan. 21.—Although not formally resigning as yet, Dr. William H. Huntington, president of Boston University has notified the trustees of the institution that he desires to be permanently relieved from his duties at the close of their academic year.

A need of rest and change of environments are given by Dr. Huntington as reasons for his action. He has been connected with Boston university twenty-eight years as dean and the last seven as president.

ALL AROUND CROOK

Believed to be Held by the United States Officers

Concord, Jan. 21.—George H. Webb, alias DeWitt C. Webb, indicted by the U. S. grand jury Dec. 14 for forging a money order of $40 payable to the order of Reuben E. Johnson at Charlestown, N. H., and arrested at Springfield, Mass., last week on his liberation from the county jail in that city, was brought here by Deputy U. S.
Marshal Fred S. Marshall Leighton of Springfield and committed to jail to answer at the March term of the U. S.
court in Portsmouth.

On being searched at the jail a lot of newspaper clippings detailing Webb's criminal career, which seems to have been devoted mainly to securing money by false pretences and by means of forged money orders were found concealed in a pocket in the inside of his undershirt.

These clippings are now at the police station and the reading makes an interesting story of a man who is believed by Marshal Kimball to be one of the slickest all-around crooks that has been landed in the police net for some time. The stories also convinced the marshal that Webb is the man
he was looking for last fall when F.
M. Johnson came here from Amesbury, Mass., and asked for assistance in discovering the whereabouts of Webb, whom he claimed had married his sister and deserted her almost immediately.

To R. E. Johnson, Webb made the statement that his father was a prominent lumber dealer in this city and that he had two sisters residing here, all of which claims were quickly dis-proven by Mr. Johnson after a brief investigation.

It was shortly after his marriage to Miss Johnson that Webb was arrested in Springfield on a charge of false pretense and has since been doing time in the Springfield jail.

Wabash at the navy yard testified that at the time of the burglary the accused was under arrest at the navy yard, charged with desertion.

New Men for Southerly

A detachment of sailors comprising seamen, firemen and water tenders came from the Wabash for the Southerly on Thursday.

Asked Co-operation in the Work

The navy department has notified the officials at the yard that the revenue cutter Androskoggin has been assigned to cover this coast district and requested that the yard and station keep in touch with the ship and her line of duty.

Repairs Now Call for Expenditure

The department at Washington has requested the officials at this yard to have a board of local naval officers give estimates of cost and labor on the repairs recommended by the official Washington board on the collier Ajax. The Portsmouth board having performed the work returned the estimates to the department calling for the expenditure of $20,000.

Two Month's Work

Should the remaining repairs be carried out on the Ajax as recommended the work will, it is expected, take about sixty days.

Another on the Way

The northeast storm signals were displayed from the wireless station today.

Bought Paper Mill Lumber

The government has made a purchase of 6000 feet of lumber from the Publishers' Paper Company, at Freeman's Point and the same will be shipped by rail to this yard at once.

He Will Look It Over

Albert Bickford inspector in the yards and docks, has been assigned as the official inspector to supervise the work on behalf of the navy department in the building of the new hospital at the yard.

Visited Dover

Captain Thomas E. Evans and wife were the guests of Chief Boatswain Frank Carrogher at Dover on Thursday.

Goes to Bureau Next Month

Civil Engineer White of the department of yards and docks will conclude his duties at this yard on February 6th.

PUBLIC OPINION

How It Was Shown in City
Hall Votes

The interest seems to have dropped out of the voting on the new city hall idea. One week ago this morning the total was 232 votes, all opposed. Since then many citizens have stated that they intended to fill out votes of protest, but the action of city council had convinced them that the question was already settled to their satisfaction and there was no need of doing so.

Last Friday for the first time since the offer was made of the voting privilege, no votes were received.

On the week since then ten more have been received all opposed to a new building and favoring the repairing of the present structure. One of these new votes is from a woman taxpayer.

The Herald is glad to have been of this service to our city, a service by which 240 people here given expressions of their views to the public.

It is remarkable indeed that so large a number spoke in this way, when we think of the diffidence which so many feel in expressions of opinion, even by the popular method of the ballot.
